Permissioned Networks

Return to Glossary

Permissioned blockchains allow a mixed bag between the Public Network and Private Network with lots of customization options. The available options include allowing anyone to join the permissioned network after suitable verification of their identity, and allocation of select and designated permissions to perform only certain activities on the network. [1)]

1)

“Public, Private, Permissioned Blockchains Compared”, Shobhit Seth, Investopedia, 10 April 2018, https://www.investopedia.com/news/public-private-permissioned-blockchains-compared/

From:
https://omgwiki.org/dido/ - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:p:permissioned&rev=1605253832

Last update: 2020/11/13 02:50