

Peer-to-peer (P2P)

Return to Glossary

Peer-to-peer (P2P) is a network model in which computers or hardware devices exchange files. Some experts describe it as an “equal client” system where instead of accessing files from a server, the “peer” computers just swap them amongst each other.

Source: Peer-to-peer \(P2P\)

From:
<https://omgwiki.org/ddsf/> - DDS Foundation Wiki

Permanent link:
https://omgwiki.org/ddsf/doku.php?id=ddsf:public:guidebook:06_append:glossary:p:p2p&rev=1593117000

Last update: 2020/06/25 16:30

