

Transport layer security (TLS)

Return to Glossary

Transport layer security (TLS) is a protocol that provides communication security between client/server applications that communicate with each other over the Internet. It enables privacy, integrity and protection for the data that's transmitted between different nodes on the Internet. TLS is a successor to the Secure Sockets Layer \(SSL\) protocol.

Source: Transport layer security \(TLS\)

From:
<https://omgwiki.org/ddsf/> - DDS Foundation Wiki

Permanent link:
https://omgwiki.org/ddsf/doku.php?id=ddsf:public:guidebook:06_append:glossary:t:tls&rev=1626292505

Last update: 2021/07/14 15:55

