Component

Return to Glossary

A Component is a functionally independent part of any system. It performs some function and may require some input or produce some output. A component can be either a software component. A Software Component is software program or module that contains computer instructions to be executed, e.g., an operating system, Internet application, or device driver.

Source: https://www.techopedia.com/definition/3217/component

See also: https://www.first.org/cvss/user-guide#Glossary-of-Terms

From:
https://omgwiki.org/dido/ - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:c:component&rev=1643128567

Last update: 2022/01/25 11:36