

Network Performance

Return to Glossary

Network Performance is the analysis and review of collective network statistics, to define the quality of services offered by the underlying computer network.

It is a qualitative and quantitative process that measures and defines the performance level of a given network. It guides a network administrator in the review, measure and improvement of network services.

Source: Network Performance

From:
<https://omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:n:netperform&rev=1605578786

Last update: 2020/11/16 21:06

